We are the Dreamers . . . these are our Dreams

Dream, when you're feeling blue,
Dream, that's the thing to do.
Things never are as bad as they seem,
So Dream, Dream, Dream.

-------- Johnny Mercer

FOREWORD

A beautiful dream of the four years which we have tried to portray by words and pictures as our life at A.H.S. . . . We remember those days held no high significance . . . but now they have become to us the most treasured ones in our memory.

Now today as we look back, we see what A. H. S. really meant to us. . . . glorious friendships, the day of the Blue and White when cheers rose above all, and defeat was far away, books and learning - - all were important.

What if we are sentimental. These years will always reign supreme in our memories.

DEDICATION

To the two who have gone far beyond their call of duty to serve their students and fellowmen - We the Annual Staff of 1951 dedicate our Yearbook.

We remember when we were freshmen how they helped to keep us from feeling so green and the way they guided us as Sophomores and Juniors. Now that we are leaving, we wish to make this dedication as a small token of our appreciation for unselfish service.

To one, Miss Wood, for her ability to instill in us her love for great literature, and to the other, Miss Lassister, for her patience and thoroughness not only in teaching but her help in making this publication possible.

Class History

Our last year as students of dear 'ol Asheboro High is too quickly drawing to an end. Never again will we dream about the school dances, football games, class plays, and all the wonderful times we have spent with our friends.

It seems only yesterday that we entered A.H.S. as a regular "bunch of green freshmen." At first the going seemed tough, but soon we fell into the high school routine.

How big we felt when we became Sophomores! We were always reminding the new freshmen of their "upperclassmen".

Our next year was filled with excitement, trills, and work. In that year of 1949 we formed the Student Council, an organization each of us was proud of.

That same year Mr. George W. Holmes, III, our principal, accepted a position as assistant professor at U.N.C. To fill his place came Mr. Hatcher P. Story.

After weeks of hard work and practice we presented that marvelous Junior play entitled, "Spring Fever." David Jarrell, Harry Anderson, Walter Yount, Charles Burkhead, Paul Davis, Doyle Craven, Joan Carlton, Becky Kearns, Iris Chriscoe, Nancy Stradley, Sara Trollinger, Audrey West, Betty Wrape, Bonnie Burge, Wayne Gibson, Jimmy Scott, Paddi Koonce, Sara Matthews, Mary Sue Haskins, Betty Lane Humble, David Sumner, Charles Holmberg, Bobby Davis, and Jimmy Flynt made up the double cast.

We will never forget the prom we so excitedly and proudly gave the deserving Seniors. Although the evening in its beautiful setting of "Blue Moon" soon passed away, it will long be remembered by everyone.

Beginning our last year as dignified seniors, we were fortunate indeed to come into the modern, new school building so long anticipated. It was like coming into high school again-we didn't know our way around.

Time came for selecting the Senior superlatives, mascots, colors, and flower. We chose as our mascots-twins Mike and Steve Lovell, and Linda Gray Cox. Our colors became blue and silver; our flower, an American beauty (red) rose.

Each year we have had excellent leaders. Officers our Sophomore year were Harry Anderson, president; James York, vice-president; Bonnie Burge, secretary; and Earl Dennis, treasurer. In our Junior year Harry Anderson was again elected president. Lynn Priest was chosen vice-pesident, with Elizabeth Watson as secretary and Stella Kemp as treasurer. Our last year David Jarrell was elected president, Grace Walker vice-president; Joan Powers, secretary; and Richard Kemp treasurer.

Twelve years we have worked, laughed, and shared our troubles. The time is drawing nigh when we must separate. Each one must choose his path to tread hoping in the end to reach his goal.

We had a past, present, and future at A.H.S. now, we only have a past; but we will reminisce in that past — we will remember.

BONNIE BURGE, historian

Memories of Asheboro High

1. Twelve long years have gently slipped by,
And lo! We are SENIORS at Asheboro High.
It doesn't seem possible for us to be,
Ending all our school activities.

2. All through these happy, peaceful years,
We've shared our heartaches, joys, and fears.
These precious memories have entwined,
Around our hearts like clinging vines.

3. We'll ever cherish Asheboro High,
O'er all things which in memories lie,
Because that's where we've spent our schooldays,
In a thousand different ways!

4. Some of us may err and falter,
Some may rise to heights unknown,
But regardless where we wander,
Asheboro High School shall be home!

5. Oh, God, we pray that thou wilt help us,
Worthy citizens to be.
And to fight life's battles ever,
Like a soldier brave for thee.

Last Will and Testament

We, the seniors of 1950, finding ourselves unable to cope with our many blessings, and knowing that it is better to give than to receive, do ordain and publish this – our last will and testament . . .

ARTICLE 1

Section 1. To Mr. Story we leave our many thanks for helping us to see the right way.
Section 2. To our faculty we leave our utmost appreciation for their undying efforts to make our load lighter.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. Students last will and testament.
We, Doris Wright, Bettie Hayes, and Patty Holt, will our many good times to Norma Watson and Nancy Garner.
I, Stella Kemp, do leave all my troubles to Girleta McPherson, in the hopes that she will get along better than I did.
I, Sara Trollinger, leave all the work in the Library to Charles Bossong, hoping that he will get it done.
I, Paddi Koonce, do leave my inheritance of the famous "giggle" to Delores Henson, and the most generously given walk to Boppy Mc Crary. Go get 'em girls.
I, David Sumner, do leave my charming masculine beauty to some lucky junior who needs it more than I do.
I, Wayne Vestal, leave my white band glove to Don Monroe.
I, Betty Miller, do will my sense of humor to all those who will need it in time of trial, i.e. tests and debating.
I, Peggy Barnard, do will my job of basketball manager to any self-sacrificing-hard-working-underclassman who has the nerve to take on the responsibility.
I, Doyle Craven, leave my musical ability to anyone who enjoys playing the piano.
I, Grace Walker, do leave my height to "Squatt" Cockerham, hoping she can make her guards look as short as I did.
I, Golda Garner, do leave my place on the basketball bench to Dolores Henson, hoping that she will prove to be a more valuable player than I.
I, Douglass Walton, do will my ability to make good grades and my place in the Beta Club to Barry Wright; my ability to transcribe Gregg Shorthand and love for music to Emogene Williams.
I, Sara Hendren, leave all that I posses, with one exception--Robert, to Zelma Cole.
I, Jimmy Flynt, do leave my studious reputation, my international popularity, and my great assortment of extra curricular activities to Norma Leigh Holt.
I, Robert Cox, do leave my ability to drive an old Chevrolet to school on a cold morning to anyone who has the energy to attempt it.
I, Harlowe King, do will my ability to own a car while in high school to Russel Priest.
We, Hilda Poole, Audrey Thomas, Lalia Lea Bonkemeyer, Betty Jean Huneycutt, and Frances Albright, leave our friendship through high school to any group of girls (or boys) hoping that they will have as much fun as we did. (That is if we leave!!!)
I, Bob Morgan, do not leave a thing; I need what I have and more too.
I, Richard Kemp, do leave my little black car, crowded with girls going home from school, to anyone who wants it.
We, Nancy Willians and Doris Miller, will everything we have to Elizabeth Williams and Virginia Yates, (except Charlie and Jerry).
I, Barbara Allred, hereby leave part of Randleman to Jean York, hoping she can keep it under control; as for the other part, I'm taking that with me.
We, Betty Redmond and Helen Wood, leave our shorthand to a junior who is too lazy to write longhand.
I, Betty Lou Spivey, do leave my passing grades to Daniel James.
I, Sarah Matthews, do will to anyone with a desire for work, a gift of gab, and my place on the debating team to Jo Ann Scott.
I, Bonnie Burge, leave only my empty desks. I want to take everything else with me.
I, Mary Alyce Snow, do hereby leave my excess typing errors to Martha Thomas – provided she doesn't mind failing grades.
We, Donna Brown and Bernell Chisholm, do leave our perfect friendship to some friendly juniors, hoping that they will have as much fun as we.
I, Carol Redding, do hereby will my ability to argue with Mr. Hunt, in driving, to anyone who thinks he can win at least one argument.
I, Wayne Gibson, do leave my "shovel" and wit to Mr. Still hoping it will not be destroyed.
I, Bobby Cagle, do leave my ability to get along with the faculty to some unlucky junior.
I, Martha Owens, do hereby leave my place as

Library Assistant and my school books to some junior who does not have anything to do in study hall.

I, Betty Wright, leave nothing since I need all that I have.

I, Vann Clark, do leave my ability to get along with others to Billy Kelly. I hope that he can make better use of it than I.

I, Frances Towery, will nothing to anyone because I need all I have to take with me.

I, Carolyn Maness, being of sound mind and body, do will my place in chorus to some songster, with the hope that she can get nicer tones than I did.

I, Elizabeth Brown, do will my place in the Beta Club to Joanne Tysor, and my natural curly hair to Dianne Skeen.

I, Elaine Burrows, do will my A's to any deserving junior.

I, Betty Jean Callicut, do hereby will my love for "picking" on people to any poor junior who can run faster than I did.

I, Bobby Forkner, do will my history worries to someone who can stand them.

I, Chuck Holmberg, hereby will my father's roses to AHS to plant on the front lawn for schade trees.

I, Elswick Smith, do leave football practice to all the lucky juniors.

We, Charles Loggins and Lynn Priest, do leave our offensive and defensive positions as center to anyone who likes to take a beating!!

I, Dorothy Rosson, will my babyish way and the wonderful places it got me to some other lucky senior.

I, Dorothy Marion, do leave my place in the Beta Club to anyone who will make better use of it than I did, and my ability to laugh to some sad human.

I, Audrey West, being of sound mind and body --body anyway, do hereby leave all ability, huh, what ability??? If I have any ability at all, I had better take it with me.

We, Jimmy Flynt, Wayne Gibson, Bobby Cagle, and Franklin Fagg, do leave our ability to harmonize on the school song to Wayne Cheek, Don Monroe, "Bo" Baker, and "Nub" Hix.

I, Hilda Ledwell, do will my "Seal Laugh" to Jerry Moffitt in the hope that she can control it in class much better than I did.

I, Becky Presnell, do leave my love(???) for basketball to Clara Mae Needham, hoping that she can accomplish more than I did.

I, Joan Carlton, do leave my most worthy title of "Class pest" to some deserving junior.

I, Polly Poole, do leave my giggle to Betty Jo Way, with the hope that it doesn't get her into as much trouble as it did me.

I, Donald Bonkemeyer, leave my ability to get along with the faculty to Wyatt Allred.

I, Bernice Yow, do leave nothing as I need all I have.

I, Betty Humble, do leave my title of "Most Talkative" to "Lou" Lowdermilk in the hope that she can get by with it as well as I did.

I, Lois Pugh, do leave my ability to be on the basketball team for four years to some freshman who can help the team more than I did.

I, Jane McCullers, do leave my ability to sneeze like a lady to any ungraceful junior.

I, Sue Haskins, do leave my second period French II class to any underclassman hoping that he may do better than I did.

I, Becky Kearns, do leave my position as chief cheerleader to anyone who can be prouder of the Blue Comets than I.

I, Max "Winnie" Connell, do leave my love for basketball to Delores Henson, hoping she will do better than I did.

I,Betty Watson, leave my silly laugh to Patsy Drake. Maybe she can get rid of it.

I, Harry Anderson, do leave my old football jersey, No. 39, to "Nub" Hix in hopes that he will have as much fun in it as I did and more luck than I had.

ARTICLE 3

Section 1. Lastly, we leave for the seniors, who could not spare their gifts, a bit of happiness along the way.

In witness whereof, we, the class of 1951, do set our hands and seal on this the fifth dav of December, nineteen hundred and fifty.

Witnesses:
Elizabeth Watson
Becky Kearns.

Class Prophecy

What a gala occasion, Golda, it seems almost fantastic, doesn't it? To see so many of our classmates assembled here in 1972, for Governor Anderson's inaugural address. Yes, Sara it seems almost unbelievable.

Oh hello Babs! We were certainly pleased to bump into Barbara Allred Parker, a well known beautician in our state.

And there are Betty Callicutt and Betty Hayes, noted dress designers.

I see Charlie is here. You remember Charles Burkhead, the commercial artist, don't you?

There is Peggy Barnard, head of the Commercial Department at W. C. N. C.

Presently we heard someone leading a number of cheers for the governor. When we glanced around we saw that it was none other than our own Joan Carlton, Becky Presnell, Lois Pugh, and Paddi Koonce, who are now Physical Ed. instructors. We hear that Paddi is also teaching a course in Dramatics.

Of course Charles Loggins, Lynn Priest, and Frank Renigar, coaches at the great U. N. C., were present for the occasion.

Golda, as I first arrived in Raleigh, I was looking through the paper and the first item that met my eyes was this. "All American, James York is to be present for the Governor's inaugural address."

Look Sara, there is "Chick" Jarrell and some of our other former football and baseball stars. "Chick" is manager of the most progressive baseball team that has ever been in Randolph County.

Listen, is that a band playing? Of course, it's Jack Lovell's top hatters orchestra, the third largest orchestra in the state. Doyle Craven, who owns a large music shop in Asheboro, still accompanies the band.

For this event, Stella Kemp, former vocalist of the orchestra is going to sing. She is now in charge of the music Department at Guilford College.

Oh, did you notice the lovely floats in the parade! Some of the cars were furnished by Bobby Davis, an exclusive car dealer.

Did you hear those campaign speeches, Sara? The ones that Paul Davis gave on behalf of Harry Anderson. He is a real politician now, isn't he?

Who is that attractive young lady over there? She is Susan Ray Updyke. Her mother is the former Sue Haskins.

There is "Chuck" Holmberg, the renowned F. B. I. Official. He will probably get an appointment from the governor.

Who are those charming ladies? They are "Becky" Kearns, Elizabeth Watson, and Elizabeth Brown. They are now teaching in the English Department at Asheboro High.

By the way, Golda, have you eaten at the Moonbeams Restaurant yet? It is owned and operated by Carolyn Maness and Dorothy Marion.

I saw some lovely magazine illustrations the other day by Carol Redding and Betty Miller. Just look! More students from the class of '51. They are Joan Powers, Frances Albright, Dot Rosson, and Jane McCullers, capable Stenographers.

Why, there is Troy Lee Moore, the handsome, eligable bachelor.

Who is the lady pinning the carnation on governor's coat? It is none other than Betty Humble Dantzler. She is now owner of a large florist shop.

There is Gilbert Trodgon, owner of one of Asheboro's Textile Plants, and Chisholm Story, owner of a large industrial plant.

Did you know that Betty Sue Wright is now manager of a cosmetic department at a large drug store?

Golda, I was glancing through the "Nosy News", edited by David Summer, the other day and I ran across some interesting ads! "Send your dirty work to us." Winnie Connell's Cleaners. "You want fish, not bones." Elliott's Fish Market.

Did you see Betty and Hurley? Hurley the third is really cute, isn't he?

Oh yes, Audrey West is now coaching the Carolina Playmakers at U. N. C.

We enjoy reminiscing with one of the athletes, Grace Walker. She is an efficient housewife and does some bookkeeping for her husband.

Mary Ann Ledwell who does Religious Education work in her husband's church just passed by.

In the mail yesterday I received a copy of Sara Matthews' latest book, In Gold or In Blue. She seems to be a very famous author, doesn't she?

Bonnie Burge, and Elswick Smith who are now engaged in Civil Service, expect to receive early appointments from the Governor.

There are numerous other housewives, career women, and businessmen from our class who are contributing much to the growth and development of our state, namley: Audrey Thomas, Doris Wright, Bernice Yow, Martha Owens, Betty Jean Huneycutt, Nancy Williams, Evelyn Nunnery, Elizabeth Anderson, Lalia Lea Bonkemeyer, Betty Redmond, Helen Wood, Frances Towery, Douglass Walton, Mary Alyce Snow, Doris Miller, "Bud" Bulla, Bobby Morgan, Hilda Poole, Donna Brown, Wayne Gibson, Allen Kivett, Bill Henson, Polly Poole, Billy Lilly, Wayne Vestal, Leonard Cox, Elaine Burrows, Darold Auman, Hilda Ledwell, William Clapp, Robert Cox, Juanita Frank, Bobby Forkner, Leonard Hunsucker, Harlow King, Richard Kemp, Nancy Snyder, Betty Spivey, Donald Bonkemeyer, Lloyd Bulla, Franklin Fagge, Jimmy Scott, David Anthony, Bernell Chisholm, Bill Essick, Lloyd Furr, Sara Hendren, Lorene Jarrell, Jimmy Flynt, and Vann Clark.

After such an interesting experience I felt that we had had wholesome recreation. Although we have entered many walks of life, we realized that no matter where our paths lead we shall always find an inspiring fellowship in a reunion of our friends from Asheboro High!

Asheboro	12	Siler City 6
Asheboro	6	Hanes 12
Asheboro	13	Albemarle 6
Asheboro	19	Monroe 7

Summary of Season:

The Asheboro High School Blue Comets opened the 1950 gridiron campaign at Burlington. Burlington won this heartbreaker 19-0 on two fumbles which resulted in touchdowns. The comets played hard, aggressive football all the way.

Asheboro came back strong in the second game, running roughshod over Spencer to the tune of 31-0. Funderburke sparked the Comet offense.

In the third game Mt. Airy chalked up a 20-7 victory over the Comets. The Blue Comets game back in the next three games to defeat Kannapolis 27-0, Childrens Home 47-6 with Baker returning the opening kick-off 85 yds. for a T.D., and Thomasville 12-7.

The boys in blue made it four in a row by sending Graham home with a 16-0 defeat.

Asheboro narrowly escaped defeat at the hands of the Siler City eleven by winning 12-6.

Asheboro lost to a powerful Hanes team the following week 12-6.

Asheboro handed Albemarle its only defeat of the season when they won by a margin of 13-6. This was the hardest and most important game of the season. Paul Davis's running and James Yorks's outstanding performance put the Albemarlers on the road to defeat.

Asheboro won its first South Piedmont Conference when they turned Monroe back 19-7. Jarrell, Lewis, Bob Morgan, Anderson, James York, and Paul Davis really poured on the steam that night.

James York and Harry Anderson, our co-captains, are two boys that Asheboro High School can well be proud of.

Team:

COACH WARREN HAWKINS

BASKETBALL

A Tribute To The Blues

The Asheboro Cagers hit the hardwood with force, starting the 1951 season with a bang. The comets are all out this season, from the beginning, to seize the championship. They were runners-up in the tournament at Statesville last season but are out to win the South Piedmont Conference this year.

Lettermen back with the Comets this year are: James York, Harry Anderson, Max Connell, and Bobby Morgan. New grounders are: Don Funderburk, David Elliot, Gilbert Cagle, Marvin York, Charles Loggins, and Jr. Morgan. Don Bulla was also with the team last year.

Center, James York, and forward, Harry Anderson, are co-captains this year.

The Comets started the season by contesting Robbins. We won this game. Siler City was next on the list; however, they were not too much trouble. Reynolds our next opponents, whom we had feared, defeated us by 20 points. We traveled to High Point the following week where we were defeated by 12 points. We were not discouraged by this defeat and the following week won over Monroe by a margin of 30 points.

"Kannapolis means trouble," stated coach Warren Hawkins at our last practice before the game. With this challenge from our coach we went into the game with a determination to win – when the final whistle blew, the score was 42-28 in favor of Asheboro. Coach Hawkins and his cagers are a group that Asheboro High School can be proud of.

Team – Bulla, Connell, M. York, Elliott, Funderburke, Cagle, Loggins, Anderson, J. York, Jr. Morgan, B. Morgan, Coach Hawkins.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Coach
ANGELYN GLISSON

Basketball season for 1951 began with a bang. Around seventy girls arrived the first day to try their luck at this great sport. In order that a greater number of girls might participate this year, Miss Glisson made plans for a Junior Varsity team as well as for a Varsity team.

Back on the Varsity for their last year are Lois Pugh, Joan Powers, Grace Walker, and Elizabeth Watson, as forwards; as guards, Golda Garner, Paddi Koonce, Becky Kearns, Becky Presnell and Donna Ruth Brown. Girls on the Varsity who will still be here as members of the 1951-52 team are Dolores Henson, "Squat" Cockerham, and Clara Mae Needham as guards.

The team chose as their co-captains, Joan Powers and Becky Kearns, and as their managers, Peggy Barnard and Frances Albright.

The girls started their season by winning the first five games. These games with Monroe and Concord were Conference games.

It is hoped that through co-operation and team work this team of 1951 will live up to all that is expected of it.

Team: Miss Glisson – Coach, Needham, Brown, Watson, Walker, Saunders, Presnell, Barnard – Manager.
Cockerham, Garner, Powers, Kearnes, Pugh, Henson.

Dear Miss Hood,

As I am not gifted in writing poetry, essays, or themes, I find it rather difficult to express myself fully to you! It really makes a difference when you write to an English teacher's manual than a student's.

Please accept all of my best wishes for your most distinguished life. Yes, Miss Hood, you are one in a thousand. I really believe that and sincerely hope that you will live till the day so that I can prove how much you mean to me!

Ever since my freshmen year, you have been my guiding light. Ask Mrs. Hamilton someday what I think of you. She knows a great deal about my deep feelings for you.

So long, but not goodbye.

Thanks for all of your never failing help to me.

Love,

Sally Hamilton
